

Example of a bug from Jira

The "Please enter a valid number" validation message to the "Last Name" field is shown on the "Register Account" page after entering text symbols containing data

Description

The "Please enter a valid number" validation message to the "Last Name" field is shown on the "Register Account" page after entering text symbols containing data

Steps to reproduce:

1. Open the website <http://opencart.gatestlab.net/>
2. Click the "Sign In" button
3. Click the "CONTINUE" button to the "New Customer" field
4. Enter text symbols (Last name: Example) to the "Last Name" field
5. Take a look at the validation message shown on the screen

Actual result: The "Please enter a valid number" validation message to the "Last Name" field is shown on the "Register Account" page after entering text symbols containing data.

Expected result: No "Please enter a valid number" validation message is displayed on the page after entering text symbols containing data. All the text symbols are being entered to the "Last Name" field on the "Register Account" page

The screenshot shows the 'Register Account' page of the 'BEST FRIENDS' website. The page has a yellow header with navigation links: Dogs, Cats, Small Pets, Fishes, Birds, Food, Supplements, Accessories, Sale, and My Account. Below the header, there's a search bar and a 'REGISTER' button. The main content area is titled 'Register Account' and contains a registration form. The form has sections for 'Your Personal Details' and 'Your Password'. In the 'Your Personal Details' section, the 'Last Name' field is highlighted with a red box and a red arrow pointing to it. The field contains the text 'E' and a red validation message 'Please enter a valid number'. The 'Email' field contains 'example111@gmail.com' and the 'Telephone' field contains '123'. The 'Your Password' section has 'Password' and 'Password Confirm' fields. At the bottom of the form, there's a 'Newsletter' section with a 'Subscribe' button and radio buttons for 'Yes' and 'No'. A 'CONTINUE' button is at the bottom right of the form. The footer contains 'About', 'Information', 'Store Info', and 'Newsletter' sections.
